LR 18

solved or taken care of immediately, how do you do that?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Well, there's two responses to that. One is that if it is such a constitutional crisis...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Actually, I'm not sure that was a constitutional (inaudible).

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: It wasn't.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: It was statutory?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Well, what happened was that the court threw out the personal property...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Right.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: ...tax system, which was a statute. It was the constitution...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: One minute.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: ...that we didn't like because we wanted another answer.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Right.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: There was...there were things we could do, but it was more expedient to go change the constitution.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Right.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: That's what we chose to do. There's very few crises where the constitution has to be changed. It's more expedient for the Legislature sometimes...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: ...to do that, but in terms, our constitution wasn't unconstitutional.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: So but can you, I mean, if we wanted to change
